Reimagining Apprenticeship: Archiving and the Future

Join us to learn about the Arts2Work Digital Archivist Apprenticeship Program—an innovative pathway for young adults to enter the field of digital media preservation and curation. This session will feature insights from independent archivists, sharing how community archives can drive positive change and create career opportunities for low-income and justice-impacted individuals.

Featuring: Martha Diaz, ED of Hip Hop Education Center, Wendy Levy, ED of the Alliance for Media Arts + Culture, and special guests. Produced in partnership with the Society of American Archivists Independent Archivists Committee.

Discover the impact of community archives on preserving history and healing communities!
